Electronic payment by credit card

A new method for settling customs obligations secure, free and without any formalities

■ ■ What is it about ?

It is a new e-payment method enabling economic operators with access to the online clearance system (BADR) to pay customs duties, taxes and fees simply by using a credit card.

■ ■ What is it for ?

To enable economic operators with access to "BADR" and who hold a credit card to pay any customs obligations without extra costs, in full security and without any formalities.

With this service available every day from 4 a.m to 10 p.m, the operator no longer has to go to customs administration during office hours to pay his debts. He can do it via the internet by connecting to the "BADR" system.

■ ■ Who can use it ?

This service can be used by all economic operators able to access « BADR » and who hold one of the following credit cards :

■ ■ How to use it ?

This new payment method is quick and simple. The operator connects to the "BADR" system and selects the customs obligations to be settled.

Once the operation is confirmed, a payment receipt is sent to the user's e-mail address. Upon receipt of the debit notice on the bank account, the payment is recorded and a customs receipt, automatically generated by the system, is sent to the same e-mail address. Upon the operator's request, this receipt can be stamped and delivered by the collector involved.

■ ■ Where to obtain the guide describing the procedure to follow for online credit card payment procedure ?

The user guide « Credit card e-payment – Declarant Party » is available on the website of the Moroccan Customs Administration : <http://www.douane.gov.ma> in the section dedicated to « companies and professionals », target « companies », heading « see also », section « Procedures and guidelines related to online customs clearance ».
